

Inclusion Work Group Child Care Planning Committee

The Inclusion Work Group of the Child Care Planning Committee announces a Web-based directory of links to resources for identifying and intervening early with children at risk for or with developmental delays, disabilities, or other special needs.

www.childcare.lacounty.gov
Click on "Children with Special Needs"

FOR PROFESSIONALS

- Brain development, child development and developmental milestones
- Strategies for supporting and accommodating children's individual needs
- Resource and referral for children identified at-risk of disabilities and other special needs*
- Professional development and training opportunities
- Research and policy

FOR FAMILIES

- Brain development, child development and developmental milestones
- Tools for early identification and intervention
- Resource and referral for children identified at-risk of disabilities and other special needs*
- Advocacy tools and resources

* Resource and referral links to services relating to child care and development programs, early intervention, legal, low incidence disabilities: hearing, vision and orthopedic, special education, medical health, mental health and therapy services, parent and family supports, and more.

For questions or comments, contact Michele Sartell, Staff to the Inclusion Work Group and Los Angeles County Office of Child Care, by e-mail at msartell@ceo.lacounty.gov or by telephone at (213) 974-5187.